ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Kenneth Johns
Principal

"It has been said that the logical test of a people's capacity for self-government is its level of education. In a world divided into two ideological concepts, education in the democratic ideals upon which our great nation has been founded becomes an increasingly vital necessity if our democratic way of life is to survive.

If we have succeeded in implanting the Christian as well as democratic ideals in your minds, our task has not been in vain.

It is the earnest prayer of those persons who have dedicated their lives to the teaching of youth that the understandings learned while a student at Southern High School will remain with you as the doors to the future open. The world awaits you. Make it a better one."

*This Is Our Story . . .

THIS IS OUR STORY . . .

We, the class of 1957, have been the characters in an interesting story. Let's start at the 7th grade when we were still in the "Pasteboard Paradise."

The first chapter began when we were seventh graders. Fred Teets, President; Walter DeBerry, Vice-President; Barbara Glotfelty, Secretary; and Eddie Fry, Treasurer; were the leading characters of our seventh grade. Eddie Fry was also the runner-up for high salesman in the magazine campaign.

We held our class picnic at Weber's field.

We began the second chapter in the eighth grade. As eighth graders, we proudly took our positions in our new school building, Southern Garrett County Jr.-Sr. High School.

We held the same class officers except Betty Wilson took over Walter's place as Vice-President.

Eddie Fry did better this year in the magazine campaign. He sold $152.30 to tie for high boy salesman.

The basketball intramurals found 8-B in the winning spot for the eighth grade.

This year we had our class picnic at the Community Ball Park.

Our third chapter began in the ninth grade with Sue Deem capturing the Presidency. The other officers were Dick Nance, Vice-President; Dorothy Glotfelty, Secretary; and Tom Bittinger, Treasurer.

Roberta Sanders did pretty well on the magazine campaign. She was second high salesman in the campaign.

Jackie Calhoun was about the only ninth grader to appear in "The Bell of Bagdad." We were so proud of her.

The highlight of this chapter was "April Showers," our ninth grade party. We didn't know whether to act dignified or crazy. We mixed both together to have a real party. John Brown was the master of ceremonies.

The tenth grade added another chapter to our story with Jane Duling, President; Jackie Calhoun, Vice-President; Barbara Lu Glotfelty, Secretary; and Libby Dilgard, Treasurer, leading our class as our officers.

Football made its debut this year. We had nine players on the team.

Charlotte Welch and Doris Lawson were chosen from the sophomore class to be new senior high cheerleaders. Helen Browning was chosen as substitute.

"Pickles" was presented by the Senior Chorus. Many of our class complained of aches because they ate too many pickles!

We began our fifth chapter when we entered Southern as juniors. We really had a big job ahead of us.

We chose Helen Browning to lead our class as our President. John Brown, Vice-President; Barbara Lu Glotfelty, Secretary; and Patty Winters, Treasurer, were the other officers elected.

The Dramatics Club presented "Dear Ruth" with Fred Teets, Freda Cooper, and Norma Alexander and other juniors in the cast. They also took a trip to Pittsburgh to view "Cinerama" and the stage production of "What's the Rush."

Fred Teets was elected as the president for the Student Council for the next year. He had served as Vice-President all through his junior year.

Tom Glotfelty attended a nation wide FFA Convention in Kansas.

Intramural champs were the 11-B girls, Sally Wilson, Libby Dilgard, Helen Martin, Sylvia Halsey, Helen Browning, and Jackie Calhoun.

"Babes In Toyland" was presented by the Senior Chorus. Helen Browning was Contrary Mary and John Brown was an Irish policeman. Jackie Calhoun was Jill and Betty Biser, Charlotte Welch, Roberta Sanders, and Barbara Glotfelty were dancing French Dolls. Suspense, villagers and many other human toys made this operetta a success.

The highlight of this year was the prom we gave in honor of the seniors. "Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White" greeted us as we entered the door. We worked hard for the prom but it was well worth our time.

Our final chapter of high school started with our senior year.

Audrey Friend was chosen our president, Roger Glotfelty, Vice-President; David Otto, Secretary; and Patty Winters, Treasurer.

Fred Teets was Student Council President.

12-A held a mock wedding with Mary Spencer and Kenneth Peck as bride and groom. A very formal affair!

A Student Council convention in Frederick, Maryland, found Fred Teets, William George, Mary Bachiel, and Barbara Glotfelty attending.

Charlotte Welch was football queen and Sonny Vettters was King Winter. Barbara Beckman was chosen as FFA Sweetheart.

"Clementine," a play presented by the dramatics club, featured Helen Browning as a football playing tomboy. Her supporting cast included the seniors John Brown, Fred Teets, Mary Spencer, Sandra Evans, Margie Nethkin, Ted Raynovich, and Norma Alexander.

Many members of our class participated in the annual band concert and senior chorus concerts, also the operetta.

Our prom, given to us by the juniors, is one that we will always remember.

The awards assembly, senior assembly, senior picnic, and many other activities found us very busy during our last month.

Our senior sermon was really something to think about.

We have graduated now, but we will always remember these chapters of our story. As we continue our life we'll add many chapters to our story.

SENIORS . . .

"All the Way with Adlai"

Political Debate

Freda Cooper, left, Sally Wilson and Doris Lawson spoke for the Democratic candidates. Fred Teets, right, Dick Nace, and Henry Lee spoke for the Republican candidates.

"We Like Ike"

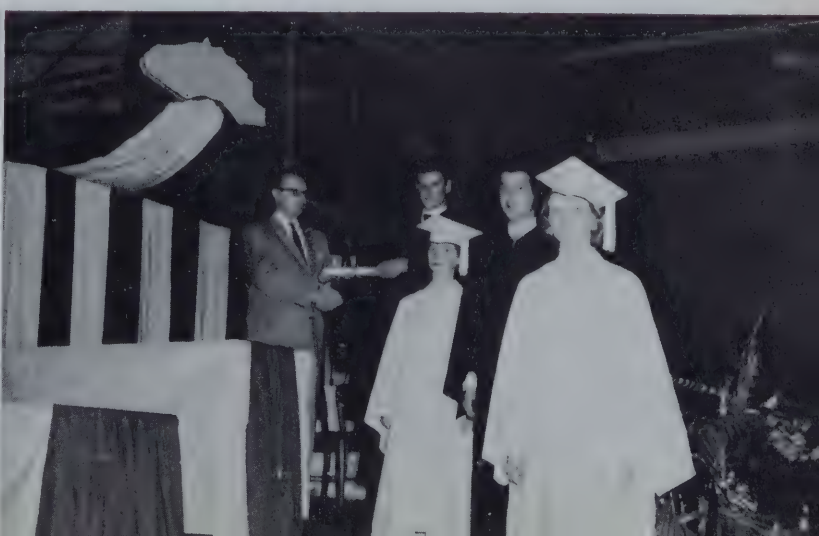

12-C held a political debate. The subject was resolved "Mr. Eisenhower is the better candidate for president." Mr. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mr. Richard Nixon were the candidates on the Republican ticket for president and vice-president respectfully. Mr. Adlai Stevenson was the democratic presidential candidate and Mr. Estes Kefauver was the vice-presidential candidate. The Republican party won the campaign in the school and in the nation.

"Here Comes the Bride"

12-A held a mock wedding in the cafeteria. Mary Spencer and Kenneth Peck were the bride and groom of this formal affair. Donald Grubb was acting minister, Burton Alexander ring bearer, and Sharon Fike flower girl. Betty Biser was the maid of honor and Robert Harvey, the best man. Other members of the class served as flower girls and ushers, mother and father of bride and groom, while others served refreshments.

"Graduation Day"

The seniors graduate and leave Southern to enter the life of our communities and our cities. Their stories will be interesting to review in years to come, but the chapters they added to their story here at Southern will be the fondest memories. "We'll remember always, Graduation Day." Pictured below are: Mr. Kenneth Johns, Principal, Gary Bittinger, Betty Biser, Fred Teets and Jane Duling.

Mr. George Lipscomb teaches a class of vocational boys better techniques of farming and managing a farm.

The Classrooms of Our Story . . .

Southern is proud of her classrooms and the curriculum of the school. Through our many classes we strengthen our physical and mental abilities.

The school offers five courses to prepare the student for their future vocations and professions.

The courses offered are academic, general, stenographic, general business, and vocational. Through these courses, the students leave our school better prepared to enter colleges, business, and homes as better students, homemakers, and successful citizens of America.

Mr. Charles Burley teaches an academic class to mix chemicals together for a finished product. $H+O=H_2O$. . . water.

Mr. DeNeal Dean teaches typing to his stenographic students. Students type, take shorthand, and learn other skills necessary to become a secretary, stenographer, etc.

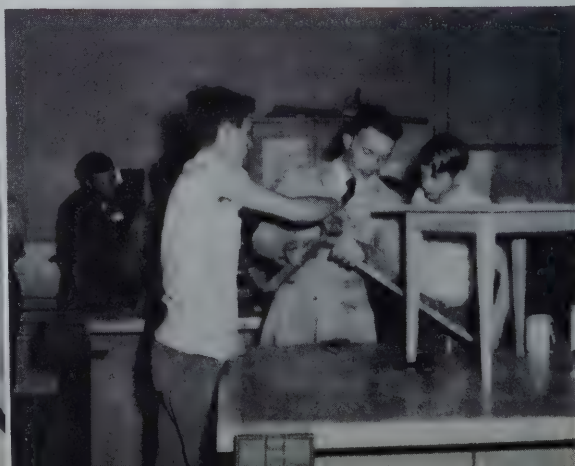

Mr. Norman Smith demonstrates the correct way to measure with a square. Students work on table project.

"Safety first" is the slogan for our shop students. Cheston Browning operates the machine while Steve Malone looks on.

Mr. Albert Ringer demonstrates the use of the slide rule. Students of Southern have many opportunities.

Miss and Mr. Highlander IV Mary Spencer and Walter DeBerry

The seniors of 1957 have chosen Mary Spencer and Walter DeBerry as main characters in this, their story.

These two have been selected by the class as best representing the seniors in scholastic attainment, character, leadership, contribution to the school, and popularity.

Mary has been in the Senior Chorus for three years and in band for five years. This year she has served as treasurer of the Dramatics Club and secretary of her homeroom. She is a student in the stenographic curriculum. Mary attends the United Brethren Church.

Walter has followed the vocational course and has been a member of the Future Farmers of America for four years, where he has been on judging teams and served as secretary in his junior year. He was a delegate to the United Nations this year. He has been a homeroom officer every year and this year he served as a member of the Sr. Steering Committee. He has played intramural basketball. Walter is a member of St. Pauls Methodist Church.

Student Government

The student council were part directors of Southern's story. They sponsored a mock election, bus to games, monitor system, pencil and pen drive, class elections, babysitters for local voters during election, March of Dimes campaign, intramurals, float in football parade, doxology singing before lunch and the Christmas tree in the main lobby.

"Highlander" Staff

The Highlander, Southern's annual was sponsored by Mr. Trickett. The staff worked hard to meet their deadlines every month. Four members of the staff represented the staff at the annual SIPA meeting in Lexington, Virginia. They were proud of their second place rating at Columbia Press Association, and had an Honor Award at SIPA.

Junior Acorn

The Junior Acorn Club elected as their officers Betty Tusing, president, Rebecca Sharpless, vice-president, Linda Teets, secretary and Dale King, treasurer. Mr. Domenick was their advisor. This young group were responsible for the junior high news, sports, activities and prepared for future work with the Acorn staff.

Officers

Roger DeBerry, treasurer, Barbara Glotfelty, secretary, Miss Ann Dilgard, sponsor, Fred Teets, president, and Wayne Callis, vice-president. Under Miss Dilgard's guidance, representatives attended MASC meeting, at Frederick, Md. Fred Teets led a discussion at the MASC meeting.

"Acorn" Staff

The Acorn Staff, was headed by Kathryn Houser, editor, Bill Henline and Jean Beachy, assistant editors. The Acorn staff took the responsibility of publishing the paper, sponsoring a Christmas formal, selling book covers, a column in the Republican, news items for the Republican, and radio news. The paper was awarded 2nd place at Columbia, and Honor Award at SIPA.

Senior Band

Southern's senior band marched in step to their music at the football games, the annual football parade, the annual school patrol parade at Washington D.C., Buckwheat Festival at Kingwood, and the Apple Blossom Festival parade at Winchester, Virginia. This peppy band also presented a concert and played in various assemblies. They participated in the Garrett County Music Festival. Mr. Raymond Borrell directed this red and white band. Ronald Dilgard is the drum major.

F. T. A.

The Future Teachers of America under the supervision of Mr. Ernest Spoerlein and Mrs. Virginia McManis practiced in teaching at the elementary school, served as ushers for college night and career day. Jane Duling, president, Nancy Harvey, vice-president, Thelma Rodeheaver, secretary, and Sally Wilson, treasurer, served as officers of this club. They decorated the school Christmas tree.

Senior Dramatics

The Senior Dramatics Club presented many plays during the year. Miss Roberta Cogley, and Miss Bernice Idleman were the sponsors of this club. Fred Teets, president, Dortha Williams, vice-president, Patty Winters, secretary, and Mary Spencer, treasurer, served as the officers. The club presented "Clementine," two one act plays, and joined the National Thespian Club.

"Oh, My Darling Clementine"

The Senior Dramatics play presented "Clementine," a play about a tomboy who loved to play football.

Left: Helen Browning, as Clementine, tells Ted Raynovich, Hank that she thinks he's terrible. The play ended with Clementine and Hank seeing things in much the same way. Clementine turned out to be a lady and Hank "the knight in shining armor." Mary Spencer and Jean Paige portrayed "Kathy" and "Jane Ann."

F. B. L. A.

The Future Business Leaders of America, elected Mary Bernard to serve as their president, Sylvia Halsey vice-president, Joy Hamill, secretary, and Beverly Shank, treasurer. This club visited Cathermen's Business School, visited business organizations in Oakland, and listened to different speakers on "Business."

Junior Dramatics

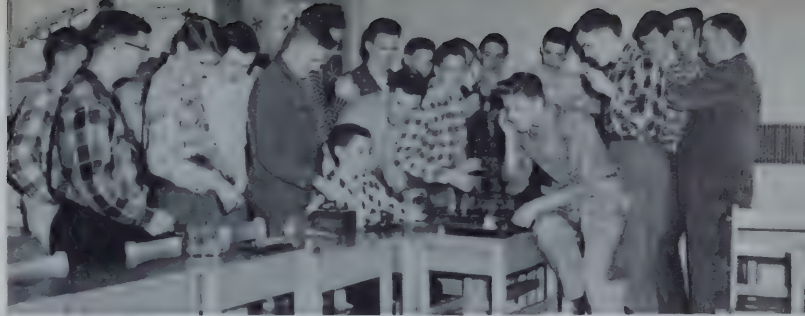

"Miss Lonely Heart," and "House Guest," were two plays presented by the junior Dramatic Club under the supervision of Mrs. Vera Mussard. Glenna Loughry, president, Connie Clary, vice-president, Sandra Skipper, secretary, and Kenneth Jones, treasurer were the club officers. The club read and studied plays and presented skits for assembly programs.

F. N. A.

The Future Nurses of America, well sponsored by Bessie Price. Helen Martin served as the club's president, Nada Fulk, vice-president, Dorothy Gloffelty, secretary and Sandra Collins, treasurer. The girls of this club helped with the polio inoculations at Southern and the clinic, and visited Philippi Hospital and College for possible application.

Radio and Electronics

These amateur "hams" elected Dick Nace as their president, Artie Ashby, vice president, Dave Shaffer, secretary, Edgel Sereno, treasurer. The club was sponsored by four members of the faculty, Mr. Norman Smith, Mr. Richard Bishoff, Mr. Charles Bennett, and Mr. Robert Martin. The members learned more about elementary electronics and electrical circuits.

Science

Eighth and ninth graders interested in science chose Brookie Brookhart to serve as president. Other officers were Mike Cook, vice-president, and Nancy Bittinger, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Burley helped the interested students broaden their interest in science.

Flute Club

Mrs. Burnetta DeVore sponsored the Flute Club. The officers elected to lead the young musicians were president, Terry Bell; vice president, Charlotte Rhodes; secretary, George Porter, and treasurer, Edward Humberson.

Science

Seventh graders interested in science learned more about science under Mr. Quattro's watchful eye. President Jim Roy, vice-president Jim Gower, secretary-treasurer Jay Bell, Sgt. at Arms, Ron Wotring and Jim Cogley were elected to lead the group. The club took field trips, and learned more knowledge about wonders of science.

Hobby

Seventh graders interested in better developing their hobbies and exploring new hobbies decided they needed no officers for their club. Mr. Flinn sponsored this club and supervised the exhibit they presented. The club endeavored to get each child engaged in at least one hobby.

Guided Reading

Mrs. Goldie Bittle advised this young group of enthusiastic readers. The officers included Paul Nazelrod, president; Jean Collins, vice president; Lynn Beckman, secretary; and Jack Friend, treasurer. The club made a study of authors, learned to read better, and learned to read various types of books on a higher grade level.

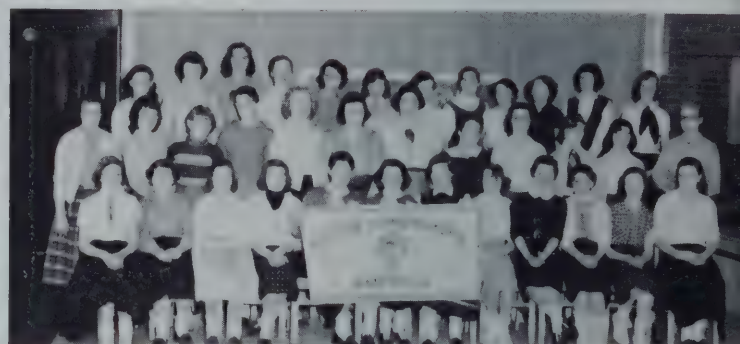

The Future Farmers of America was under the supervision of Mr. George Lipscomb. Officers for the year were Tom Glatfelty, president; Jerry Wilson, vice-president; Roger DeBerry, secretary; James Millinger, treasurer; David Otto, reporter; Bill Livengood and Don Riley, sentinels. The club chose an FFA sweetheart from the FHA to reign over their square dance, participated in FHA—FFA banquet, competed in county and state judging contests, and had a basketball team. One of the main objects of this club was to strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work and to develop competence, aggressiveness and agricultural leadership.

Junior F. H. A.

The Junior Future Homemakers of America was under Mrs. Adrienne Carter's sponsorship. President of the club was Patsy Gower. Other officers include Vicki Carlson, vice-president; Elizabeth Thrasher, secretary; Barbara Rice, treasurer; Charlotte Lewis, reporter; Sue Martin, historian; and Barbara Snyder, parliamentarian. Their activities included the FFA—FHA banquet, style show, and Jr. High sock dance.

Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow

David Otto represented Southern's FFA chapter at Kansas City.

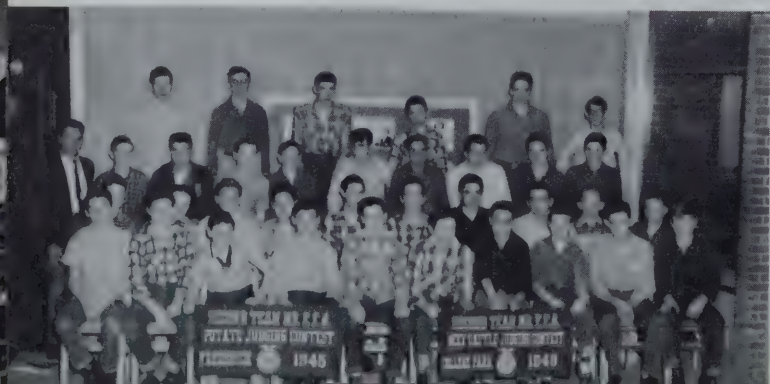

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America was under the sponsorship of Mrs. Elizabeth Randol and Mrs. Mildred Meyer. The club elected Betty Biser to act as president for the year. Neva Bowers was elected vice-president; Shirley Shaffer, secretary; Bett, McRobie, treasurer; Martha Herman, historian; and Patience Sines, parliamentarian. Each girl had a home project which was exhibited at the FFA—FHA banquet. They also participated in a style show, the Region FHA meeting and the annual FFA—FHA picnic.

Junior F. F. A.

The junior Future Farmers of America underwent the Greenhand Degree initiation. Mr. Richard Bishoff sponsored this club. The officers were president, Sam Glatfelty; vice-president, Bill Butler; secretary, George Glatfelty; reporter, Walter Livengood; and sentinel, John Moreland. They participated in the FFA—FHA Banquet and square dance.

Art

These amateur artists elected Joanne Wotring to the office of presidency for the year. The other officers were Lola Weimer, vice-president; Betty Wilson, secretary; and Richard Weeks, treasurer. The club awarded pins to the senior members and made Christmas jewelry. The members develop their skills by working on projects. Miss Francis Patterson was the sponsor.

Biology

Field trips were among the highlights of the activities of the Biology Club. Wesley Lane was elected president with Kenneth Shaffer, vice-president; Richard Kitzmiller, secretary; and Wellington Bittinger, treasurer. Each individual member worked on a project and helped to put a display in the school lobby.

Junior Art

The Junior Art Club chose Tommy Forman to act as president; Guy Hinebaugh, vice-president, Patty Friend, secretary; and Georgia Glatfely, treasurer. Mr. Robert Rodeheaver was the clubs' sponsor. They studied oil painting, ceramics, basketry, charcoal, still-life, landscape sketching and leathercraft. The members shared new ideas and experiences in the field of art, studied to develop more creative experiences, to develop interest and hobbies that would be useful later in life.

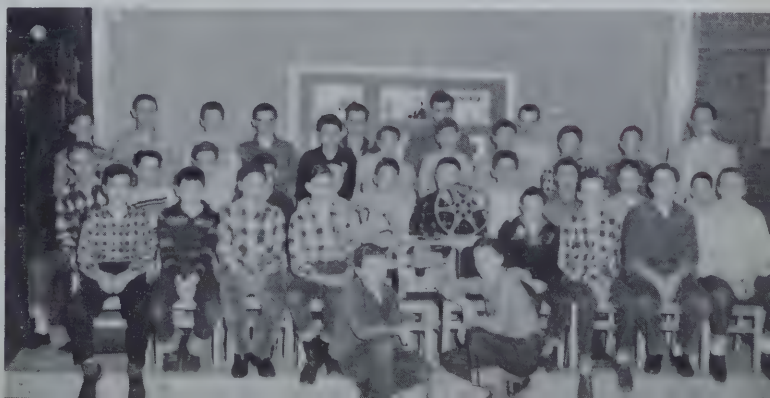

Hobby

Eighth and ninth graders interested in developing their hobbies were under the supervision of Mr. Mason Callis. The officers elected were Ronnie Colaw, president; Phil Criss, vice-president, Richard Lambert, secretary; and Brenton Propst, treasurer. The members shared their hobbies and exhibited their projects. The members gained new interests and developed these interests to form new hobbies.

Audio Visual

Dennis Dumire, president; James Finch, vice-president; Clarence Custer, secretary; and Dorris Updyke, treasurer, were elected as officers for the Audio Visual Club. The members, under Mr. Elmer Crone's sponsorship learned to operate movie projectors, record player, filmstrip machine, tape recorder and received private instruction from the senior students, Richard Crosier, Harold Murphy, and Harold Park.

Junior Majorettes

Beginners Band

This group of young music makers took the first step toward the Senior Band. They participated in a concert at the end of the year to prove they had learned their music and to prove their readiness to go on to Junior Band. Mr. Raymond Borrell was the director.

Dance Club

These young dancers were very busy during the club year learning new dance steps. They were encouraged to use the dance steps at other affairs. The officers include: Sue Yutzy, pres.; Dorothy Harvey, vice-pres.; and Fred Bell, sec'y. and treas. David Gonder was program chairman and Miss Betty Kildow and Miss Sharon Young were the sponsors. The club sponsored the "Shamrock Fling," a dance for junior high people.

Woodmaking

Mr. Norman Smith sponsored this junior high woodworking group. These amateurs chose projects that they would like to work on during the year. These projects consisted of many different works.

Southern's Royal Court

MARCH OF DIMES QUEEN. Mr. Kenneth Johns crowned Mary Bernard Queen of the March of Dimes of Southern High.

10th GRADE QUEEN AND KING, RIGHT: Cynthia Nace and Bill Henline were chosen queen and king at the annual tenth grade party. They were each given a "band of gold."

EVERY TEAM MEMBER'S A FOOTBALL KING. Every member of the football team is king of the dance. The cheerleaders, who sponsor the dance, feel that the team needs every player and all the boys are as good as kings.

INTERESTING SCENES TAKEN FROM SOUTHERN'S FILES. TOP ROW: Patricia Leighton portrays the famous Statue of Liberty at the Armistice Day program. "Rock Around the Clock" finds Southern's band actively playing while majorettes spell out Southern High. 12-A bride and bridesmaids of the annual mock wedding. SECOND ROW: The Music Majors provide dance music for the dancing partners of many a scene. "We Three Kings" was sung at the Christmas Cantata by Bill Burgwald, Dick Snyder, and Keith Mersing. "Swing Your Partner," was the tune to which Bobbie Sanders, Freda Cooper, Pat Winters, and Barbara Glatfelter danced. THIRD ROW: Helen Browning as Butch in the play "Clementine" shows off her shiny black eye. The student council held a political rally in the gymnasium preceding the mock election. Joan Paige and Keith Mersing sing at the annual tenth grade party "Band of Gold." LEFT: Kiss and make up! RIGHT: Butch decides to become lady-like.

"We got a touchdown, hi-de-ho"

Referees always have the final word. Southern's team and students believe that sportsmanship is an essential part of a game. The faculty and students strived to make sportsmanship prevail at every game.

"T-E-A-M, Yea Team"

This year was rebuilding year for the Highlanders. Graduation took eighteen of the squad members. Mr. Richard Travis took Mr. DeMoss's place as football coach.

On the opening of ball practice, a small but eager squad showed up for workouts. They worked long, hard hours learning the fundamentals of football.

Opening day found the Red and White going down to defeat at the hands of the Petersburg Vikings. As the season wore on the Highlanders showed definite improvement. They dropped close hard fought contests to their opponents. On Friday, October 5th the Southern Squad broke into the win column by downing St. Francis of Morgantown 6 to 0. The Kingwood Stags defeated the Red and White by two points. Then came county rival Northern. The Huskies won on the strength of three points after a touchdown. Southern's defense held, Potomac Valley Conference Champion, Keyser to 18 points, but lost. Southern closed the season on a winning note by out playing and out scoring Terra Alta Hilltoppers twenty to nothing.

Southern took a big step forward in football by organizing a Junior High Football Squad.

These boys showed interest and skill in their workouts. They played an inter-squad game and a game between the eighth and ninth grade. Mr. Edward Quattro coaches this team.

Parents Day

There is always someone behind the players. The parents have showed much interest in their sons and have encouraged the sport of football. Parents Day gave the team members a chance to show their parents their appreciation.

"All the Way, Southern, All the Way"

Varsity Club

Southern's athletic males who received letters in sports at the school were eligible to join the Varsity Club. The officers included Bill Deckman, Pres.; Leo Martin, vice-pres.; Don DeWitt, treas.; and Waller Hoyer, sec. The club sponsored "The Snowball" Dance and a sock hop. The members played a benefit game, for the March of Dimes, against the faculty. Senior members were awarded jackets upon completion of the year. Mr. Travis and Mr. Hogue were the club's sponsors.

Baseball

The story of baseball at Southern this year started in the springtime. We were quite proud that last year's squad finished in second place in the Potomac Valley Conference. A few veterans returned to the team coached by Mr. Carlton Hogue.

Jr. High Basketball

These athletic minded boys went to the semi-finals of the P.V.C. Jr. High tournaments by beating Elk Garden and W. Va. Deaf. They met defeat under Moorefield's strong team. Mr. Edward Quattro was their coach.

SOUTHERN

This is our story of basketball. Four members of last year's varsity squad returned this season. The 1956-57 basketball season showed the Highlanders winning three games while dropping sixteen. What the record does not show is the hard work and fighting spirit that the Highlanders put into the season.

HIGHLANDERS

The Red and White team faced some of the district's best teams and always gave an excellent account of themselves in every contest. They were never completely out-classed in any of these games. Six members of this year's squad will return next season. The team showed very good sportsmanship throughout all the games.

Southern's Girls' Athletic Association was sponsored by Miss Betty Kildow. The group was composed of girls who liked athletics and wanted to learn more about sports. The officers were: president, Sally Wilson; vice-president, Joan Paige; secretary, Lois Swartzentruber, and treasurer, Nancy White. The association participated in a playday with Terra Alta and Northern High Schools. They sponsored a sock dance after the annual Northern-Southern game. The association had a recreation night and invited the alumni of the association.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders took an active part in all sport scenes. They led cheers in rain and mist as well as in the gymnasium. Basketball and football spectators were always led by this peppy squad. The squad consisted of Pat Campbell, Margie James, Brenda Davis, Joan Paige, Delores Riley, Keith Mersing, Sonny Colaw, Charlotte Welch and the captain, Doris Lawson. They sponsored the annual football parade, and football dance. Late in the basketball season the boys were involved in an automobile accident which made it necessary for the girls to cheer alone. BELOW: Sonny Colaw, and Keith Mersing.

These enthusiastic young ladies were found at the junior high games and the junior varsity games. The squad consisted of Sue Yutzy, Kathryn Mosser, Dorothy Harvey, Ann Lee Lohr, and Charlotte Biser.

Faculty Vs. Varsity Club

Southern's faculty played a benefit game for the March of Dimes against the Varsity Club. The teachers won the game. The game provided an entertaining afternoon and proved very helpful to aid the school reach its March of Dimes goal.
